Campus Chatter ...

By WAYNE GREENBERG

DUKE DASHINGS

With the election of officers for the coming school year at the Keystone Hotel on May 12, the Phi Alpha social fraternity, which recently returned to the Duquesne University campus, climaxed its first full season of activity. The introduction of this group into the Greek letter social circle was highly spectacular since the boys were on top of the heap from beginning to end in spite of the fact that their manpower was bailed from a shallow well.

The Bluffites' reigns will be handled by Lenny Vogel who was elected president. Assisting him will be the remainder of the elected slate: Allan Goppman, vice-president; Norman Green, secretary; Martin Rubin, treasurer; Milt Goldberg, sergeant at arms.

The touching finale for their long list of spring events was a dance in honor of three senior brothers who receive their sheepskins in June—Bernard Tracht, Gershon Ruben and Samuel Solomon—and Sheldon Ruben who leaves the frats ranks when he transfers to Wooster University in Massachusetts at the close of this semester. Some of the couples present were Morton Wasserman with Ruth Surloff, Sheldon Rubin with Laverne Cohen, Milt Goldberg with Mili Jacobs, Lenny Vogel with Evelyn Warmstein, Phil Kravitz with Helen Marcus and Norman Green with Joan Platt.

MAYPOLE PICKINGS

In fifteen minutes Gene Krupa lowered the fever of Pitt students at the Grand Ball of the Spring Festival at Hunt Armory in East Liberty. The four thousand couples that turned out to give the drummer boy a rousing welcome were disappointed at his sad attempt to produce dance music comparable to the type produced by the other "name" bands in the country. Freddie Shaffear's all girl outfit took the music honors away from Gene and his music peddlers.

Bonie Baker and Mischa Auer offered some fresh air with their usual top flight performances, thus saving the evening. The chairman for the dance, Paul Steinlauf, is to be commended for the excellent job he did in making this dance the biggest and best this city has seen in years despite Krupa's shortcomings. The one solo offered by Mr. Krupa proved that as a drummer he still sits on top of the world.

Tap day found Ruth Tobias as senior queen, Irv Terner in Omicron Delta Kappa and Marshall Levy in the Hall of Fame. Ruth Tobias, or "Toby" as everyone knows her, was outstanding in school activities and scholastically during her college career—in fact more so than any other senior woman—and she was deservedly elected senior queen. "Toby" is known about school for her soft-spoken manner and friendliness to all.

Irv Terner, a member of Phi Epsilon Pi, was trapped by Omicron Delta Kappa, honorary achievement fraternity. This is one of the most coveted honors that can be bestowed upon a Pitt man. Marshall "Buddy" Levy was tapped into the Hall of Fame, an honor given to seniors who prove themselves outstanding in all phases of college life. Besides being an honor student "Buddy" had his finger in every pie. His outstanding quality was stamina; he could do more things at one time and more efficiently than any other Pittite.

Lenny Walk succeeds Jerry Josephs as Business Manager of the Pitt News.

TARTAN TIPS

Call Day at Carnegie Tech was happy day for the Beta Sigma Rho fraternity. Brothers Dick Bloom and Milt Friedman were tapped by Phi Kappa Phi, senior honorary scholastic fraternity. Delta Skull called Dave Mintz into its ranks for his outstanding achievements as a junior. Corky Dunn and Cy Tomashoff were inducted into the Beaux Arts Honorary. Tau Delt Ivan Fagan found himself a member of Delta Skull and Ted Meyers and Sam Moses are pledges to Pi Delta Epsilon, honorary Journalism frat.
